Career Life Balance

Career Development Panels this week! Keynote by Coach DQ

"COACH"

Turn on the television, look at a best sellers list or pick up a magazine and you will most likely come across "coaching". The title "Coach" has taken on a whole new meaning and has expanded beyond the athletic field. In the past 10 years the field of Professional Coaching has swept the country and is changing lives!

Dawn Quesnel, CPCC (Certified Professional Co- Active Coach), has a monthly column on www.ishopintown.com titled "CareerLifeBalance" and is the founder of www.CareerLifeBalance.net

Announcing The Career Life Balance! A Radio Show about Coaching. Hosted by Coach DQ every Tuesday starting November 29th at 11am on WPEP 1570AM Talk Radio

The National Television Academy, Boston/New England Chapter, will be hosting two Career Development Panels week: Panelists include: MaryLou Palumbo - General Manager of Cox3; Jim McKeever - Promotions Director WGGB - 40; Bill McColgan- Executive Producer CN8 Sports and "Sports Pulse"; Mark L'Heureux, Assistant Director, Creative Services, WGBH, Bianca De La Garza, News Anchor, FOX 25; Jen Street, News Director, Viacom Boston, and Mike Perlow, Reporter, NESN; and President of www.getatvjob.com Master of Ceremonies and Keynote speaker Dawn Quesnel, CPCC aka "Coach DQ" Professionally Certified Career Life Coach and President of www.CareerLifeBalance.net

The goal of these events is to target and guide college students and professionals interested in the television/media industry who are just starting out in the career world.

The 90-minute session includes a one-hour panel discussion followed by a 1/2hr of networking, tours and refreshments. The forums feature a distinguished panel of media representatives who will be on hand to give advice on how to prepare and develop a career in the broadcasting industry.

Topics for discussion will range from Production, Air Talent, Creative Services, News and Sales. The panel will also be available to answer questions regarding their respective fields, and share special tips and experiences.
